Says the Wise Bathing

Over-Night FEDERAL Wireless To the Advertiser

Announcement is made in New York that Packey Macfarland and Jack Briton, both of Chicago, have been matched to meet at Madison Square Garden, November 11.

The Turkish town of Tushi surrendered to the Montenegrins yesterday afternoon. This opens the way to Scutari, where Turkish forces are said to be concentrating and on which the Montenegrin troops are advancing.

Speaking at a banquet in his honor tendered by the Portland chamber of commerce, Maj. Gen. Leonard S.
Wood, chief of staff, U. S. A., told his hearers to disabuse themselves of the idea that there is any plan on foot to build up in this country a great military power.

It is officially announced that 3600 Turks were captured at Tushi. King Nicholas, who had been watching the engagement, entered the fort and hoisted the Montenegrin flag.

A great Montenegrin victory over the Turkish troops was announced today by Prince Peter of Montenegro, in a telegram to his former tutor at Heidelberg.

Official confirmation that Ottoman troops have crossed the Serbian frontier reached the foreign office this evening from the French minister in Belgrade.

President Taft reviewed in the North river the greatest assemblage of American warships ever gathered together in American waters, the long column extending from Twenty-fourth street to Yonkers, or fifteen miles, five miles of which were of first-class battleships alone.

The cruisers and special type boats lay at anchor further up the stream, while running parallel to the line of battleships were the torpedo boats and destroyers.

Yesterday the great fleet was reviewed by Secretary of the Navy Meyer.

The second X-ray picture taken to locate the bullet in Colonel Roosevelt's side has been developed and has proved successful. It shows the bullet is firmly wedged against the fourth rib on the right side. The bullet is in a harmless position and will not be removed unless it irritates the flesh surrounding it. It will be at least four and probably six days before this can be determined. Colonel Roosevelt is now sleeping quietly and apparently resting well.

"We have located the exact course of the bullet, and have definitely determined that it did not touch a vital spot. Colonel Roosevelt's life is not in any danger," was the latest bulletin issued by the doctors caring for Roosevelt.

"Carrying that speech in your pocket," Dr. Ochsner remarked, "was the luckiest thing you ever did."

Col. Roosevelt laughed. "That speech would stop more than a bullet," answered the colonel; "it was a great speech."

"Col. Roosevelt's pulse at this hour is 90.2; his respiration, 20. No operation to remove the bullet is intended at the present time. Col. Roosevelt's condition is hopeful, but the wound is so important as to demand absolute rest for a number of days."

"JOHN B. MURPHY,
"ARTHUR BEVEN,
"R. G. SAYLE,
"SCURRY TERRELL,
"Attending physicians."

Acquaintances in New York of John Schrenke, who attempted to assassinate Col. Roosevelt in Milwaukee, were not surprised today to learn of the attack. Schrenke, they say, had often declared Col. Roosevelt was America's greatest menace, but indicated no intention of slaying the former president. The would-be assassin was considered weak-minded.

"I am shocked at the occurrence, but nevertheless hopeful," said Mrs.
Roosevelt, as she and her daughter, Ethel, and son, Theodore Roosevelt, started for Chicago to be at the bedside of Colonel Roosevelt. "The latest word from my husband that he is in no danger has greatly allayed my fears. I want him brought to our home in Oyster Bay," continued Mrs.
Roosevelt.

John Schrenke, the crazed laundry-man who shot Roosevelt, was arraigned at Milwaukee today on a charge of attempted murder. He pleaded guilty.

"Did you get any stock with your farm?"

"Yes, quite a lot of it."
"Cows, pigs and hens, I suppose."
"No, just a lot of worthless mining stock. I found it in the attic."

WISCONSIN WOMAN'S FORTUNE

Freed From Pain, Weakness, Terrible Backache and Despair by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Coloma, Wis.—"For three years I was troubled with female weakness, irregularities, backache and bearing down pains. I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking several bottles I found it was helping me, and I must say that I am perfectly well now and cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—MRS. JOHN WENTLAND, R.F.D., No. 3, Box 60, Coloma, Wis.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 30 years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
